Office of the Commandant

Dear Parents and Friends,

Congratulations! On behalf of the Superintendent of the United States Military Academy, I want to welcome you to the United States Military Academy Preparatory School Class of 2006. This will be a year of great challenges and great rewards for your sons and daughters. Their selection as a Cadet Candidate is an extremely noteworthy accomplishment.

The privilege of being part of the West Point tradition is extended only to those very few who have demonstrated exceptional potential for future service to our nation and our fellow citizens.

The West Point Prep School's education and training programs will give each Cadet Candidate the opportunity to develop that potential fully through extensive academic, physical, and military training that will allow them to not only succeed, but excel at West Point.

I look forward to seeing you throughout the year during various athletic events, Parent's Weekend, and of course Graduation Week.

GO ARMY! BEAT NAVY!

Edgar K. Rugenstein
Colonel, U.S. Army
Commandant and Dean

Visitor Information

Since September 11, 2001, Fort Monmouth is no longer an 'open' post due to force protection measures. Access to the post is granted only to those who have specific business with the Fort Monmouth community. The public is not permitted general access to the post, but visitors may access the post under special circumstances.

Visitors requiring access to the post must report to the Visitors Control Center (VCC) across from the Oceanport Gate. All visitors must produce a government issued photo ID card such as a passport or driver's license. All visitors require an escort at all times. Authorized escorts are Fort Monmouth affiliated government ID cardholders. Visitors must have a valid driver's license with a photo, proof of insurance and current vehicle registration in order to receive a temporary vehicle pass.
